

2006 Regional Trainings

The Full Circle Project

Utah State University

Undergraduate or graduate credit will be offered free from Utah State University. $200 stipend is available for the first 50 participants registered for each training. For more information contact (888) 523-5127 x 4. To register, complete the form.

Reading and Math Strategies For At-Risk Students

Oneida, Wisconsin
Oneida Nation
Elementary School
April 21-22

Math Strategies/ Reading and Vocabulary Development

Kelly's Inn
Bismarck, North Dakota
May 31-June 1

Reading and Math Strategies For At-Risk Students

Onamia, Minnesota
Nay-Ah-Shing School
June 2-3

"Completing the Circle" Supporting and Engaging At-Risk Students and their Families (Interventions and Strategies)

Deadwood, South Dakota
Cadillac Jack's
June 12-13

"Completing the Circle" Supporting and Engaging At-Risk Students and their Families (Interventions and Strategies)

Deadwood, South Dakota
Cadillac Jack's
June 14-15

"Completing the Circle" Supporting and Engaging At-Risk Students and their Families (Interventions and Strategies)

New Town, North Dakota
Four Bears Casino
August 8-9

Math Strategies/ Reading and Vocabulary Development

Flandreau, South Dakota
Flandreau Indian School
August 21-22

Positive Behavior Supports and Classroom Management

Fall, 2006
Date to be Announced
Pineridge Agency

Please fax the following registration form to (435) 797-0983

Name _____

Address _____

Training Location _____ Training Dates _____

E-Mail Address _____

Phone # _____ Social Security # _____

School employed at _____ Phone # _____